RANDOLPH

Remains of E. O. Wires Brought to Randolph From Watertown, Mass.

The remains of E. O. Wires, who died on Tuesday last, at Watertown, Mass., the result of a shock of paralysis, were brought here yesterday for interment. Deceased was a brother of Capt. Henry Wires and formerly resided in Burlington and was well known in this vicinity. Mr. Wires left a wife, one daughter, Mrs. William Rose of Brighton, Mass., and a son, Richard Wires, who lives in Oregon.

Mrs. M. A. Tewlesbury is at the sanatorium for treatment for gall stones.

Mrs. Wesley Hodgkins and his two children are in Rochester, visiting friends.

Miss Maud Putnam will teach the coming season in West Brookfield in district No. 1.

Miss Agnes Sault is off duty because of a sprained ankle which necessitated her remaining quiet.

Willie Howard has 800 trees tapped and already has made about fifteen gallons of maple syrup.

Mrs. Addie Bates of Waterbury is assisting Mrs. Z. L. Hill in the care of Mr. Hill who is in very feeble health.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Woodard will return to this village to live this spring, having sold their farm at Bethel, Me.

Mrs. Guy London, who has been passing a few days with her uncle, Mr. H. Miller, returned to her home in Burlington yesterday.

Mrs. Bertha Burdick has been here for the last few days assisting in the care of her father, C. H. Hayward, who has been critically ill, though now improving.

Mrs. J. H. Smith from Somerville, Mass., has been in town and re-released her farm just south of the village to Calvin Brewster, who now occupies it till March 1910.

Mrs. Oliver Ashton of Rutland addressed the Woman's Literary club at their last meeting upon the work and object of the Vermont Federation of Women's club of which she is the president.

Miss Olive Moulton, the second assistant in R. H. S. is taking a trip to Boston and New York during the vacation from her school duties. Miss Farrand is with her parents in Bakersfield and Miss Gray is with Miss Holden.

Mrs. Olive Hood was operated upon at the Mary Hitchcock hospital in Hanover, N. H., Saturday for the removal of an enlargement that had formed below the left ear. It proved successful and not as serious as was at first feared.

Miss Georgia White and Mrs. Emma Reed joined the Bethel party for the Washington trip, leaving yesterday. William Mayo, a former member of the graduating class at Whitecomb high school, was another of the party leaving here on Friday morning.

The East Brantree residents who have located in this village to the number of 50 gathered in parish house last evening for a social, when music and light refreshments made the time pass happily. It is understood that the former Brantree people of our village will shortly form an organization and devise means of amusement and social entertainment, after a regular club order in the near future.

Hon. V. I. Spear was in Burlington last week at a meeting of the officers of the Maple Sugarmakers' association to consider the advisability of making a display of products in the Greater Vermont exhibit to be held in Burlington armory, June 15 to September 15. It was decided to rent a space 10x10 feet in the main hall of the armory in which to place on exhibition a stock candy, cakes and other dainties to be replenished frequently from the Randolph market. They also agreed to have a demonstrator in attendance.

On yesterday afternoon a party of 25 or more people left here on the 1:25 train for a trip of ten days to Washington, D. C. The party consisted of the entire high school graduating class, which numbers 18, whose names were as follows: Jackson Vail, Arthur Wheatley, Clarence Frink, Walter Smith, William Keyser, Albert Marcot and Frank Jones and Misses Beulah Hayes, Florence Howard, Evelyn Dewey, Ida Rand, Florence Oney, Mary Winslow, Mary Ellis, Doris Rogers, Mary Tewlesbury, Jessie Goodell and Vestia Lyon. The class were accompanied by Prin. and Mrs. E. G. Ham, Misses Lucinda Howard, Emma Patch, Anna Eastman, and others. Their first stop was at Bellows Falls for the night, after which they proceeded by the way of Rutland, Albany, Jersey City to Washington. They expect to return on Friday of next week.

JINGLES AND JESTS

Hoboken.

Think of it, children, in future time, When they tell us of his daring in prose and rhyme:

The slayer of beasts in the jungles wild, Think of his sailing, my child, my child— From Hoboken!

Marvellous beasts he will no doubt meet In the jungle depths and the desert heat And many a rare avist spot. To put on the selves of the instint— From Hoboken!

Think of it—heralded far and wide, This fearless hunter of elephant's hide, Starting his journey, with smiling face, From such a ridiculous starting place— From Hoboken!

Annals of herohood, how it will be At the end of the sixtieth century To read in the chapters of fame and fear:

"He started, with many a party tear, From Hoboken!"

What will the giascent say, And the white rhinoceros—killed at play— Think of a hunter who started out Over the great Dark Continent's jungle rout

From Hoboken! From Baltimore Sun.

Blessing Cheap.

There was an elopement a short time ago from a Bolton suburb, and after a brief honeymoon the bride returned to the parental roof.

"And you will give us your blessing?" she asked.

"Precisely," replied the old man; "no trouble about the blessing, but beard and lodging will be at regular rates."—Tit-Bits.

ARE YOU WRETCHED IN BAD WEATHER?

Keeping the Kidneys Well Has Kept Many Barre People Well.

Many Barre people find that bad weather brings on a dull pain in the back, or rheumatic aching, neuralgia, nervousness, irritability and weakness. If, when you get wet or take cold, it "settles on the kidneys," and there is a shivery, chilly sensation in the back, it shows kidney weakness, which is often the beginning of disease. Doan's Kidney Pills should be used persistently until the chilly feeling is gone, and the flow of urine is natural. Doan's Kidney Pills have saved Barre people much suffering.

W. W. McAnulty, 157 Seminary street, Barre, Vt., says: "I took all kinds of medicine supposed to be good for kidney trouble, but did not find relief. The pain in my left kidney was severe. I could not stoop to pick up anything without having sharp twinges in the small of my back. I was very restless at night and arose in the morning feeling tired and miserable. Damp weather always made me worse and finally I became so bad, I could only walk a short distance. It was then I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from E. A. Drown's drug store. They helped me from the first, relieving the backache and strengthening my kidneys. I used in all three boxes and can honestly say that I have never taken a remedy that benefited me so greatly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Pythian Sisters Thursday evening. The meeting was called for the purpose of entertaining the grand temple officers, Luna Dodge of Bellows Falls, G. C. and Lizzie M. Stockwell of Lyndonville, G. of M. and R. and C. who are making their official visits to the different temples in the state. The work of initiation was exemplified in an acceptable manner, after which refreshments were served and a social hour was much enjoyed by all present.

Hardly a Sanctified Odor.

Ambassador Lloyd Griscom, at a dinner that he gave to a party of Philadelphia visitors Rome, praised the well known American veneration for antiquity.

"It is seldom enough," said Mr. Griscom, "that we find an American philomath before the treasures of Rome's past. I have only found one such person."

"He is a Southerner, and I gave a day to showing him about. The first church we visited was, I think, the Ara Coeli, on the Capitoline Hill."

"This church, Calhoun," said I, "is 800 years old."

"Humph," said he. "It smells a lot older!"—Philadelphia Record.
